Locals and Personals

The Queen Lodging house of Wailuku has new rooms, new furniture, clean beds, 50 cents per night.

A. Do Rego, Proprietor.

Ring up 284 for a good square meal, we'll deliver at your door. Price reasonable. Deliver only within City limit.

C. F. Herriek came up to Maui on the Mauna Kea Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Judd was a passenger to Maui on the Mauna Kea from Honolulu Tuesday evening.

W. D. Lowell of Paia and B. Waggoner went to Honolulu Friday night and returned Tuesday evening. They went down to be initiated in the mysteries of the Mystic Shrine. They were very reticent on their return but finally admitted that the sands were hot.

Senator W. T. Robinson returned home on the Mauna Kea Tuesday.

C. H. Kluegel, of the Public Works Department came up to Maui Tuesday.

Attorneys W. A. Kinney and Judge Quarles returned from Honolulu on Tuesday after the legal battle before the Supreme Court.

Gurrey & Company Ltd. have purchased the business of the Hawaii Photo and Art Co. Mr. A. R. Gurrey Jr. who is well and favorably known on Maui is the manager of the new company and will doubtless make a success of the concern. See their ad in another column.

L. von Tempky paid Wailuku a short business visit Wednesday.

Attorney James L. Coke was in attendance before Judge Goodness' Court in Ulupalakua as the attorney for a defendant there Wednesday.

R. A. Wadsworth, manager of the Maui Soda and Ice Works was a passenger to Honolulu this week to attend the annual convention of the Hawaiian Rubber Growers Association.

D. C. Lindsay, the cashier of the Baldwin National Bank of Kahului went to Honolulu this week to attend the Hawaiian Rubber Growers Association.

It is reported that a bill is being prepared to be introduced in the Legislature to require all tenders of stationary engines to be licensed, much as marine engineers now are. Licenses, it is proposed, are to be limited to citizens.

Benito Guerrero went to Honolulu Thursday evening on business. He is expected back Tuesday evening.

Alfred Martensen of the Maui telephone Company went to Honolulu this week on a vacation.

Q. Q. Bradford has completed his experiments with rubber in the Nahiku District and returned to Honolulu by the Claudine this week. The results of his investigations will not be made public except through the Department of Agriculture in Washington as he is in the employ of that department. Those who have been with him daily are elated over the great future for rubber in Nahiku.

James McHardy has resigned his position with the Haiku Fruit and Packing Company and has gone to Honolulu.

C. O. Jacobs, the manager of the Koolau Rubber Company went to Honolulu this week to attend the annual convention of the Hawaiian Rubber Growers Association. He is an enthusiast in this line of horticulture and believes there is a great future for the industry in the islands.

Doctor and Mrs. Dinegar were passengers to Honolulu this week. The Doctor will bring back a new automobile.

Mr. W. A. Anderson of the Nahiku Rubber Company was a passenger on the Claudine Wednesday. He will attend the Hawaiian Rubber Growers Association. Mr. Anderson reports that the cost of tapping and getting ready for market the rubber of the young trees is now about forty six cents per pound but that this will be greatly reduced and when the trees are large enough for commercial tapping that he has every reason to believe that this figure will be greatly reduced but even at this cost there will be a big profit in the industry.

You are sure to have turkey for your Thanksgiving dinner if you go to the Manhattan Cafe.

It is understood that Mr. J. W. Wrenn manager of the Kahului Store, has resigned his position and will return to San Francisco shortly after the first of January.

The Kahului Railroad Company has fenced the track through Kahului and are now ballasting the track. This improvement will minimize accidents on this part of the road.

Doctor F. A. St. Sure was a passenger to Honolulu this week.

Judge R. P. Quarles went to Honolulu Wednesday to argue an appeal before the Supreme Court that was taken on a bill of exceptions to the ruling of the local court in the suit of Carl Waldayer versus the Wailuku Sugar Company. W. A. Kinney went to Honolulu by the same steamer by way of Lahaina for the same purpose. Judge Quarles is one of the attorneys for the plaintiff and W. A. Kinney is one of the attorneys for the defendant company.

Frank Medeiros is having a nice residence built on his High street property that he purchased of attorney Noah Aluli.

W. G. Scott of Paia went to Honolulu this week to attend the Hawaiian Rubber Growers Association meeting.

After the meeting of the Hawaiian Rubber Growers Association meeting there will be a great banquet at the Young Hotel.

The evening meal will be twice as good and twice as wholesome if you have a few bottles of Primo Beer on the table.

We have all the latest time-saving devices that enable the amateur to turn out superior work. Fine Kodaks and Kodak supplies. Developing and printing by mail. Honolulu Photo Supply Co.

Any woman may be perfectly safe in picking out a box of cigars for her husband, if she takes care to ask for Robert Burns, Little Bobbies, Van Dyck, or Owl cigars. M. A. Gunst & Co., Honolulu.

Fred Church, the tansan agent, is on Maui in the interest of his agency. He has made many friends on Maui.

Attorney W. A. Kinney went to Honolulu, Friday night to argue an appeal before the Supreme Court. He will probably be back today.

An extension of the October term of Court was ordered Wednesday of this week and it is doubtful if the cases before the court can all be disposed of without a further extension.

Judge Quarles went to Honolulu to represent Carl Waldayer before the Supreme Court in an appeal.

Mr. S. S. Paxson of the Singer Sewing Machine Company is on Maui assisting Mr. S. Decker for a few days in placing new machines.

Manager F. P. Rosecrans, of the Paia store, went to Honolulu this week. He will attend the Rubber Growers Association.

The Wailuku Fire Company held a hot meeting Monday evening in the Fire Company's building. All members who had at any time been absent were subject to a fine but this was finally voted down. It would seem that some of the rules should be amended if the company is to live and continue its usefulness. The boys receive no pay for their labor and pay monthly dues and for them to then be subject to fines for non-attendance at drill is too severe.

C. W. Ashford went to Hawaii last week to defend Senator elect Baker on a charge of embezzlement. There are two charges of embezzlement against Baker.

The str. Claudine, due to leave Kahului Wednesday, November 25th, enroute to Honolulu, will instead leave Kahului Tuesday, November 24th, one day in advance of regular schedule.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Maui, T. H.

Dated Nov. 13, 1908.

HUGH HOWELL,
County Engineer.

Nov. 21, 28 and Dec. 5.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

The President of the United States having designated Thursday, the 26th day of November, 1908, as a day of general thanksgiving and prayer, I recommend that all the people of this Territory observe that day appropriately. During the past year all things have worked together in an unusual degree for the welfare of Hawaii; the prosperity and progress has been such as to call for a special sense and manifestation of gratitude. Therefore let the people assemble at their places of worship or in their homes for praise and thanksgiving to the Almighty for blessings received and prayer for future guidance; let there be family reunions, entertainment of strangers, cessation from labor as far as practicable and abundance of charity.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the Territory to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol in Honolulu this 14th day of November, A. D., 1908.

By the Governor: W. F. FREAR.

E. A. Mott-Smith,
Secretary of Hawaii.

The Manhattan Cafe will serve a special Thanksgiving dinner next Thursday.

NOTHING AMISS.

Two Scottish farmers met on their way to church. "Man," said Donald, "I was wonderin' what you will be askin' for yon bit sheep over at your steadin'?" "Man," replied Dougal, "I was thinkin' I was wantin' 50 shillin' for that sheep." "I will tak it at that," said Donald; "but, och, man, Dougal, I'm awfu' surprised at you doin' business on the Sabbath!" "Business!" exclaimed Dougal. "Man, sellin' a sheep like that for 50 shillin' is not business at all; it's just charity!"—London News.

BLISSFUL IGNORANCE.

A ganger on one of our large lines of railway has a keen Gaelic wit. One warm afternoon, while walking along the line, he found one of his men placidly sleeping on the embankment. The "boss" looked disgustedly at the delinquent for a full minute and then remarked:

"Slape on, ye lazy spalpeen, slape on, for as long as you slape you've got a job, but when you wake up you ain't got none."—Tit-Bits.
